Mix elements of Haujobb, Front Line Assembly, Recoil (Alan Wilder), Kraftwerk and even a little Tear Garden (Skinny Puppy) to try and crack the complexity of this amazingly talented band. Modern, original electronic beats that transition and weave through several styles and genres into one very strong and cohesive debut!

"A new electronic force from the center of Eastern Germany (Leipzig), Liquid Divine pump fresh blood into the dancefloor club electro scene with their crushing debut "Interface". Liquid Divine presents innovative, danceable and structured electronic beats in the vein of early Haujobb and Front Line Assembly with the spirit of Kraftwerk's minimalistic overtures thrown in for (very) good measure. "Interface" promises much from this new electro duo, with 12 tracks of intelligent club electro, combining dancefloor beats with complex programming and excellent production." --Music Non Stop

"A new force coming all the way from the middle of Eastern Germany and worldwide known WGT-town Leipzig. "Interface" is the debut album by this promising new project, consisting of two members, far away from normal 4 on the floor club electro/EBM." --Metropolis Distribution

"Interface" holds 12 songs for brain & body, combining intelligent electronica with floor appeal. A future classic, already NOW!" – Ground Under Productions, Australia
