XMH has a take no prisoners, in-your-face attitude. Harsh, yet catchy electronics mixed with male and female vocals. Their latest release, 'State of Mind' was produced by Len Lemeire (Implant, 32Crash, Anne Clark). This multimedia CD also has remixes by Soman, Implant and Jesus on Extacy. XMH are back with a bang and are ready to grab you by the throat!

Dark electro band XMH was founded in 2005 by singer/songwriter Benjamin Samson in the Netherlands. In 2005, the band released their debut EP 'Life', which managed to stay in the Dutch Underground Charts (DUC) for more than 6 months. During 2005 and 2006, XMH built up a strong fan following by playing in clubs & venues all over Holland and Belgium.

XMH presented their debut album "Time To Play" in the Summer of 2007 to a packed and sold-out venue at the Summer Darkness festival. This debut CD received excellent response from press, fans, DJ's and other bands. So much so, that this album reached #2 and the song 'Rape Your God V.2' went to #1 on the Dutch Underground Charts.

In a short time, XMH has climbed quickly to become one of the best new hot acts from Holland while playing throughout Europe alongside bands such as Covenant, Combichrist, Funker Vogt, Angels & Agony, Clan Of Xymox, Amduscia, Agonoize, Grendel, The Birthday Massacre, The Cruxshadows, Das Ich and many others.

To ease the waiting for the new XMH album the band released a DJ Promo called the Led Manville Remixes, this CD contains 6 exclusive remixes and went to nr. 1 in the Dutch Underground Charts.

The XMH cd 'State Of Mind', produced by Len Lemeire (Implant, 32Crash) is released on Nilaihah Records in July 2010.

"XMH is hard hitting modern EBM with danceable beats. Benjamin Samson, the man behind the project, is barking like a rabies infected Rottweiler. If you enjoy this kind of music, you are surely in for a treat. You find great tracks like "Wasted", "State of Mind", "Komasaufen", "Neon Venus" among others. Overall, I can surely understand why this album has got great reviews and why Nilaihah chose to pick them up. Great label release start from XMH!" ---Brutal Resonance
